

Contents/Sommaire

Ideologies in Debate: Spectacle and Representation in Tudor England

(Idéologies en débat : spectacle et représentation en Angleterre à l'époque Tudor)

John J. MCGAVIN To See or Not to See: Ideology and Spectatorship	3
André LASCOMBES The Croxton Play of the Sacrament: Paradox and Scandal Made Spectacle	17
Yvonne PHOENIX A Daring Game: The Handling of Political Issues by Tudor Playwrights	35
Roberta MULLINI “For eche of you one tale shall tell”: Religion, Debate and Spectacle in John Heywood’s The Foure PP	51
Greg WALKER Early Tudor Drama and the Arts of Resistance	69
Sarah CARPENTER Dramatising Ideology: Monarch, State and People in Respublica and Ane Satyre of the Thrie Estaitis	95
Richard HILLMAN “No debate, please, we’re British”: Circumventing and Reinventing Politics on the Early English Stage	113

Andrew J. POWER
Gorboduc , Early Elizabethan Seneca and the Religious Settlement	129
Bob GODFREY
Offence and Appeal: A Marlowe Paradox?	149
Jean-Christophe MAYER
Shakespeare's Memorial Drama: History, Memory and the Re-rehearsing of Ideology on the Shakespearean Stage	167
Armelle SABATIER
The Representation of Conflicting Ideologies of Power in Some Jacobean Roman Plays.	181
Pauline RUBERRY-BLANC
The Older Woman on the Early Modern English Stage: Fixed Stereotype or Mobile Signifier?	193
Michael HATTAWAY
Something of Great Constancy: Representing and Reading Fairies on the Tudor Stage	205
Donald BEECHER
The Art of Declining Invective in Ben Jonson's Poetaster	223
Contributors/Les auteurs	241